UBCO

UBC Okanagan was established in 2005 and has since rapidly developed into a vibrant academic community with a strong emphasis on research, innovation, and community engagement. According to UBC's 2023/2024 enrolment report, there are currently 11,913 students enrolled at UBCO, up over 11% since 2019/2020. As Kelowna's only accredited university, UBCO is the most prestigious institution in the Interior.

OKANAGAN COLLEGE

Okanagan College is a private college located in BC's Interior and is the Interior's largest post-secondary school. Each year, over 15,900 students attend Okanagan College which is equivalent to 7,988 full-time equivalent students. Okanagan College prides itself on its academic support and community of learning - evidenced by their smaller average class size of 18 students.

CENTRE FOR ARTS AND TECHNOLOGY KELOWNA

Kelowna's Centre for Arts and Technology ("CAT") has established itself as one of Canada's leading colleges in digital arts and technical training. CAT has produced successful graduates in disciplines including animation, audio, design, filmmaking, photography, and network security.
